Location

Moraira on the Costa Blanca is a charming fishing village that has preserved its original character and authentic atmosphere. Nestled in a picturesque bay and surrounded by the Sierra de Bernia mountains, the town impresses with its well-maintained sandy beaches, hidden coves, and a small, idyllic marina. Moraira is known for its high quality of life and is characterized by elegant white traditional houses that have retained the authentic Mediterranean style. Far from mass tourism, the daily fishing activities and the lively market create an authentic flair, making Moraira a particularly attractive experience for both locals and visitors..
