Location

Empuriabrava – the little Venice of Spain Empuriabrava, also known as Ampuriabrava, is located on the Gulf of Roses on the Costa Brava and is considered one of the largest water sports centers in Europe. Founded in 1967, this marina town was designed following the model of Florida and today impresses with over 30 km of navigable canals and more than 5,000 boat moorings – making it the largest marina in Europe. Many houses have their own private moorings and pools, perfectly accessible by both car and boat. In addition to water sports such as sailing, windsurfing, and kitesurfing, Empuriabrava is also famous for skydiving. Cycling and hiking trails, along with the rivers La Muga and Rec els Salins, complete the wide range of leisure activities in this unique coastal town..
