Location

Calpe, a charming holiday destination on the Costa Blanca, is known for its stunning beaches and vibrant maritime atmosphere. With around 15,000 inhabitants, the town combines relaxed vacations with rich tradition. The two excellent sandy beaches – the 7 km long Playa de Levante in the north and the fine sandy Playa del Arenal in the south – are awarded the EU Blue Flag for their cleanliness and environmental quality. Calpe is not only famous for sun and sea but also for its long fishing history, especially reflected in the famous fish auction (Lonja). Here, visitors can bid on fresh fish daily or enjoy it in numerous top-quality seafood restaurants. Whether you want to relax on the beach, experience local culture, or enjoy exquisite cuisine, Calpe offers the perfect mix for an unforgettable holiday on the Costa Blanca..
