Property description

Welcome to an extraordinary coastal property in one of the most exclusive locations on the Costa Brava: this historic fisherman's house from 1928 is situated directly on the fine sandy beach of Llafranc and is connected to the promenade by a private jetty – a truly rare and unique location.

In 2015, the property underwent a comprehensive and stylish renovation, resulting in a high-quality home that perfectly combines historic charm, modern comfort, and Mediterranean lifestyle.

Highlights of this unique property:

- Prime beachfront location with private access via a jetty
- Two spacious terraces with breathtaking panoramic views of the sea and promenade
- Large windows and open-plan design that harmoniously bring light and nature inside
- Three floors plus a basement area with double doors opening onto the beach
- Double-height living and kitchen area with an open, modern fitted kitchen
- Four stylishly designed bedrooms, including an exclusive suite with a private terrace
- High-quality bathrooms with open concepts and dressing areas

The heart of the house is the impressive living and dining area on the ground floor, featuring an open American kitchen, a gallery level, and seamless access to the large sun terrace – an ideal place to relax, enjoy, and live right by the sea.
