Location

The coastline of Benissa on the Costa Blanca stretches picturesque from Moraira to Calpe, offering about 4 km of coast with small coves and beaches such as Fustera and Cap Blanc - perfect for diving and sailing. The town of Benissa lies slightly inland and is known for its historic center, featuring landmarks like the cathedral, a monastery, and the popular weekly market. Benissa combines nature, culture, and leisure, making it an ideal place to live and vacation. The mild climate, with an average temperature of 21 degrees Celsius and around 300 sunny days a year, provides excellent conditions. Water sports, golf, horseback riding, and hiking are among the most popular activities in the region..
